Dear Dr. Wilson:

The following action regarding your institution was taken by the Board of Trustees of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges during its meeting held on June 19, 2014:

The SACSCOC Board of Trustees reviewed the institution's procedures addressing the timely reporting of substantive changes. No additional report was requested.

This review was conducted following the institution's failure to seek approval to offer 50% or more credits for the following online programs: Associate in Applied Science in six concentrations, the Associate of Arts, and the Associate in General Education. The institution's procedures for reporting substantive change must continue to address all types of substantive changes as defined in Commission policy, "Substantive Change for Accredited Institutions of the Commission on Colleges."

We appreciate your continued support of the activities of SACS Commission on Colleges. If you have questions, please contact the staff member assigned to your institution.

Sincerely,

Belle S. Wheelan, Ph.D.
President
