Dear Dr. Wheelan:

McDowell Technical Community College is planning to add a new Associate credential, Emergency Medical Science in August 2020. Please see the enclosed prospectus requesting SACSCOC approval. We have approval from our Board of Trustees and from the North Carolina Community College System of offer the Associate in Emergency Medical Science (A45340). Enclosed is a check for $500 to help defray the cost of the review.

Sincerely,
