

BP 4.10 Services to Students

Legal Authority NCGS 115D-20

Approvals 10/16/09
Revision

Policy

McDowell Technical Community College, operating under the “Open Door” admissions policy of the State Board of Community Colleges, is committed to taking prospective students and placing them in a program of study commensurate with their interests and abilities through counseling, guidance and testing. As a result of this commitment, the Student Services Department must respond to the needs of a diverse student population. The ultimate objective is total service to the student and to the community.